TOLLE LEGE...

This is the 19th issue of THE SEMINARIAN: "the organ of the Seminary Community." So far, it has been nothing more than a "rejected organ of undetermined nationality." However, as a Seminerian, I do not wish it to remain as such, neither do I want it to stay that way from an Editor's point of view.

On April 13th, the Seminary, its faculty and students will be present at St. Charles Seminary, or I should say, those who have made an effort to see how others live and study will be present. This is a very important date and a crucial one too; I say it is important because those who will be present will be representing the entire Student Body (whether we realize it or not) and we will most likely be "judged" on this representation --- Seminarians, Roman Catholic or not are only human --- "Yes they are!" It is crucial because this has been an invitation from the Roman Catholic Seminary that has probably taken a very long time in getting here - if you know what I mean. Also, it is a very good opportunity to get to know these people - for these will be the people we will be working with, not only in the Church, theologically, or in a Seminary Community, academically, but in THE WORLD, wherever you go - these will be the future leaders of the Catholic Church, and you are going to be working with them as fellow priests, as brothers.

I am not saying this is an opportunity to sightseeing, but one that can bring about much in the way of understanding.

And so, THE SEMINARIAN asks those who have decided to ape the phlegmatic actions of the first guests in Matthew 22:1ff., to reconsider; and those who will be attending:

"The Lord Be With You!"

Holy Communion will be celebrated next Tuesday evening, April 14, at 8 o'clock. The preacher for the service will be Dr. Donald Hoiges, president of the seminary. Usually some background is given about the speaker, but no such information need be printed here, for we all know of Dr. Hoiges' dedication to the church and to the Word of God. We hope to see a number of you at the service. Shalom.

A workshop on "Contemporary Music in Worship" will be held on this campus on April 28-30. Sponsored by U.C.I. and the Youth Commission, LCA, it will bring to this campus Isaiah Ruffin and Robert Edwin who along with Dr. Bornemann will make up the leadership for the workshop.

Sessions will be held during daylight hours with informal sessions possible upon the initiative of students or the approximately 50 workshopers expected.

On Wednesday, April 29, the scheduled seminary convocation will be presented in music by Robert Edwin. Many remember him from his previous concert here two years ago.

For further information contact Dr. Bornemann or Dr. White.

There will be a Student Body meeting next Tuesday night, following the Communion Service. There will be a few reports of importance, with the primary order of business being the Nomination of candidates for President and Treasurer of the Student Body for next year. The nominating committee, headed by Dave Newhart, will present two names for each of these offices, and additional nominations may be made from the floor. Both of these offices will be open to next year's middlers. Plan now to attend.

The election will be held during the week following this meeting. Ballots will be given to each student through the mail. After receiving your ballot, tear or cut off your name, and vote, and return the ballot to the ballot box which will be placed in the mail room.
